

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

FCTE Online

Pentateuch

A study of the Old Testament legal books (Genesis through Deuteronomy). Special attention will be given to interpreting Genesis 1-11 and to explaining the flows of patriarchal and national history in Genesis 12 to Deuteronomy 34. Contemporary approaches to the Pentateuch will be evaluated.

New Testament Survey

A survey of all the books in New Testament. Special attention will be given to the major themes and general content of each book. This will provide the necessary foundation upon which all upper level New Testament courses are built.

Gospel I

A synthetic and analytical study of the Gospel accounts for the first three evangelists. Each gospel is studied according to its distinctive viewpoint

Gospel II

A synthetic and analytical study of the Gospel accounts for the first three evangelists. Each gospel is studied according to its distinctive viewpoint

Personal Evangelism

This course covers the principle and practice of personal evangelism especially as it relates particularly to this methodology of soul-winning.

Christian Doctrine

This course covers the study of Bible, God, Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit, Salvation, Church, Angel and the Doctrine of Last Things.

Old Testament Survey

This course covers a survey of all the books in the Old Testament. Attention will be given to development of the theme in each book as well as to the mastery of the general content of each.